Teacher Thoughts

Show and Tell this week is letter S.

A BIG thank you to all families for being so generous providing snack! Going forward, we are set with juice. If you could bring a gallon of water instead that would be great!

Thank you for continuing to review letters and letter sounds with your child.

Scholastic Book Order

Be sure to have your Scholastic order in by March 10th. We want to make sure it is delivered before our break.

If you have any questions about ordering, please let me know.
